

PASTORS AND SUNDAY-SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS

YOUR ATTENTION IS CALLED TO A NEW
RELIGIOUS PUB-LICATION,
A WEEKLY JOURNAL
KNOWN AS

THE NATIONAL BAPTIST REVIEW

A PAPER THAT WILL AC-COMPLISH WHAT OTHER
JOURNALS HAVE NOT ACCOMPLISHED.

IT WILL BE
A Pastor's Help.
A Sunday-School Superintendent's Guide.

An Educator's and a Missionary's Information Bureau.

The University, the College and the Academy Reference.

A Complete Directory
of State Conventions

Every pastor and superintendent
may have this paper free for one year, if he will send in two paid subscribers at $1.00 each for one year.

The departments that the National Baptist Review will carry embrace the following:

First, General Reviews—Composed of editorials, editorial comments and denominational questions.

Second, Sunday-School Reviews—This will be devoted to superintendents, teachers, their work and the Teacher-Training Service.

Third, Pastoral Reviews—
Which will embrace the work of the pastor at his church with a Homiletic Review each week.

Fourth, Educational Reviews—
The work of the University, College, Academy and High School will be treated and kept up with in this department.

Fifth, Missionary Reviews—
Will contain a list of the time and place of meeting of all state and territorial conventions, the names and addresses of their officers and reports from the mission fields.

Sixth, Publication Reviews—The books, magazines, newspapers, and especially religious journals, with what is in them of interest to the religious world, will be reviewed weekly.

Hence these six departments will no doubt be of interest to every reader of good literature.
Aside from this, The National Baptist Review will espouse the cause of the National Baptist Convention.
It is sound in doctrine and is the mouthpiece and official organ of the Home Mission and Publishing Boards.

THE PRICE IS

$1.00for twelve months.
0.50for six months.
0.25for three months.

OUT OF TOWN NOTES.

CLIFTON NOTES.

The Baptist Board convened at Mt. Tabor Baptist Church last week; quite a number of visitors were in attendance. Rev. A. Phillips, pastor of St. James M. E. Church, visited Clifton Training School last week and gave an interesting talk.

Mr. A. B. Brown made a flying trip to Waynesboro last week.

Mrs. D. C. Whitaker and daughter from Lexington are here visiting her sister, Mrs. Classie Tapler.

Rev. Carroll of the Baptist Board preached at A. M. E. Church last Sunday night.

The citizens of Clifton were greeted Sunday morning with a six-inch snow.

Rev. D. M. Binford is back again
and at his post.

The colored citizens of Clifton
were called together by Prof. M. C.
Jones to consider the movement of a railroad. Mr. Jackson, temporary chairman, called the house to order.
The following made short talks: Rev.
W. J. Young, Prof. M. C. Jones, Messrs. Arch Brown, N. C. Jackson, Edgar Nunly, Tennie Bogan, H. C. Davis. The majority of citizens were found ready for voting. Necessary arrangements were made for those that were not prepared, after which permanent organization was in order and the following officers were elected: Rev. W. J. Young, Chairman;
Mr. A. B. Brown, Secretary; Mr. N.
C. Jackson, Treasurer.

SMYRNA NOTES.

The M. A. Society here is growing.
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Drew joined last night.

The literary department of the Society and the new Glee Club are planning to give an entertainment Friday night in the Christmas for the benefit of the Society.

Mr. George W. Dukes has been real sick, but is better now.

Mr. J. E. Etter has moved his family to Nashville.

Mr. J. W. Matthews, S. G., of the M. A. Society, is here this week on business.

Mr. R. L. Perry had his cow killed
by a train Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Elder, who has been sick,
is improving.

Mrs. Alice Webb and Mrs. M. A.
Scruggs have subscribed for the Globe.

Little Miss Jimmie B., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Marvel, will leave here Sunday for Louisville, where she will spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Laura Jackson.

Mr. Brad Buchanan's name has been added to the Glee Club list. He will sing bass.

EBENEZER NOTES.

Much interest is being put forth by the teachers of Ebenezer Church Sunday-School to have the Christmas exercises Monday night, December 27, a great success. A prize will be awarded to the class rendering the best program on that night. Christmas tree Wednesday night, December 29.

Mrs. Emma Hall is quite ill at her residence on Chicken pike.

Mrs. Annie Huddleston is slowly improving.

Mr. Albert Buchanan is expected home during the holidays, after visiting his daughter, Mrs. Helen Cheatham, at Little Rock, Ark.

SUNSHINE HOME NOTES.

The Christian Workers' Mission Society will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday night, December 27.
We hope there will be a liberal response to the appeals for a Christmas offering sent out by the Corresponding Secretary.

Miss Constance Moore, a student of Roger Williams University, will be the guest of this Home during the holidays.

After an absence of eight weeks,
Miss Florence Burnett has returned to resume her work in this office. She gives an excellent report of her visit to points in Louisiana. Her visit was a successful one. The people of New Orleans deserve special mention. Here
she visited a large number of churches,
Sunday-schools, Bible Bands, Sunshine Bands and Missionary meetings than at any other one place. Her lectures in behalf of the Fireside School were highly appreciated as was shown by the large number of subscriptions to Hope and orders for other Fireside School literature taken. A few days before leaving the city a reception was tendered her at the home of Rev.
J. Acox. Friends and former schoolmates did all in their power to make it pleasant for her. She speaks in highest praise of her hospitality.

LAVERGNE NOTES.

The Sunday-school will have their Christmas tree Saturday night.

Mr. Crutchfield, of Nashville, was the guest of Miss Lillie Covington Sunday.

Miss Sallie McKnight is able to be out again.

Miss Mary State is on the sick
list.

Mrs. Sam Drake visited Nashville
Friday.

Mr. Tom Goodman visited the city.
Miss E. M. Baker and Miss Ruth
P. Bake visited the asylum.

The United Sons will have their installation feast Thursday, December 30, 1909. We invited every society.
We hope to have a nice time.

Mrs. Lizzie Thompson visited her mother Sunday.

Mr. Ned Davis visited the city.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

Miss Blanche Morton, who has been here several weeks, has returned to Chicago.

Miss Annie Sanders left last Friday
for Columbus, Ohio, to visit her sister.

Miss Willie Burkeen is very ill at her home on Main street.

Miss Mayme Davis left for Chicago
Tuesday to visit her brother.

Mr. Henry Knott is improving.

The citizens of Shelbyville are preparing to celebrate Emancipation.

Miss Janie Thompson left Saturday
for Chicago.

Mrs. Lizzie Barret made a flying trip to Nashville last week.

Miss Sadie Hillsman is visiting in West Tennessee.

Mrs. Ellie Bias is improving.

We are glad to have another colored physician in our city.

The death of Rev. William Flagg, of Bellbuckle, caused quite a gloom to be cast over our town, on account of the relation he sustained with our town. His daughter, Miss Sarah E.
Flagg, is one of the teachers in Turner
Normal.

The first quarterly meeting of the conference year was held at the A. M.
E. Church Sunday and Monday night.
It was a success.

Dr. J. A. Jones went to Nashville
this week to attend the funeral services of Rev. Flagg.

Turner Normal College will suspend for the holidays after Thursday, the 23rd. The Nightingale Quartette is making great preparations for their annual holiday tour. They will visit Wartrace, Winchester, South Pittsburg
and Chattanooga.

Dr. L. E. Martin has moved his residence from Wartrace to Shelbyville.
We now have two colored physicians.

Quite a number of Turner Normal students are preparing to go home to spend the holidays. With the quartet out on the road, and so many others
gone home, there will be lonesome times at the college during the holidays.

Miss Mabel McKay and Miss Dora
A. Jones spent the night with Mrs.
Dr. Key recently.

With Rev. Craft pastor of the First Baptist Church, every church in town
now has a pastor and all are doing well.

The students of Turner Normal will give a concert at the A. M. E. Church on the 25th. The Nightingale Quartette will be assisted by other students.

Rev. F. W. Gardner is again the popular pastor of the A. M. E. Church.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Mr. James Neil, of Washington, D.
C., made a short visit here last week,
this being his old home. While here
he was the guest of his cousin, Miss Mary Bradshaw.

Dr. J. Q. Johnson, Presiding Elder of the Columbia District, held the first quarterly conference of this conference year at St. Paul last week.
Aside from the regular routine church
business, there was the issuing of exhorting license to Mr. W. H. Ogletton and Mr. Clarence Thompson.

Mrs. Callie Porter is very ill.

Dr. and Mrs. I. H. Hampton spent the week-end here the guests of Mrs.
Hampton's sister, Mrs. Ella Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dawson are here
from Chicago to spend the winter.

Mrs. Emma Dean and children will leave soon for St. Louis to make that city their home.

Mrs. Josie Head died at her home,
corner of Eighth and Embargo streets,
on the 17th, after an illness of only one week. Her funeral was from the First Baptist Church.

Miss Agnes P. Hampton has closed
her school at Goodwin and will leave soon for Paris, West Tennessee.

Mrs. Cad Gray, of Birmingham, Ala., is home, called here by the serious illness and death of her sister, Mrs.
Josie Voorhes Head.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Morton are the proud parents of a fine boy.

Mrs. Eddie Davis entertained the Embroidery Club last Saturday at the home of her father, Mr. J. H. Slaten.

Miss Carrie Porter is here from Chicago to spend the holidays.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Nettie Harris and Mr. John Porter.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

Miss Almira M. Williams is on the sick list.

Mr. Bolden Redick is able to sit up.

Mr. M. London, of Nashville, was out Sunday.

Mr. Eeklin North is able to be at his place of business.

F. D. Williams was in Nashville
Tuesday.

Mr. T. A. Williams, House avenue,
list.

has had a new store house built, and has moved in. He has been in business for the last ten years, and has accumulated a good deal of property.
He also has a nice six-room cottage nearing completion. He is the oldest son of Mr. A. N. C. Williams, who has been in the general merchandise business for forty-three years on Main street.

LITTLE FOLKS SWOOP DOWN ON SANTA CLAUS.

Nashville, Tenn.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little boy eight years old. I will write you a few lines. I want you to bring me a toy horse, some fireworks, candy, nuts, oranges and all kinds of fruits. Your little boy,
LOVIE L. MANNING,

933 Sixteenth avenue, North.

Don't forget my little sisters.

Petersburg, Tenn., Dec. 20, '09.

Dear Santa Claus:

Please send me some Christmas toys, candy and oranges. Excuse my short letter. I will close by saying good by. Send me a little fiddle.
Yours truly,
LITTLE ROSS FISHBACK.

Nashville, Tenn.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little girl five months old.
I thought I would write and tell you what I want as this is my first Christmas. I will not ask you for much.
I want you to bring me a cloak and rubber doll and a gold ring and pair of shoes. From your little girl,
IDA MAY STRATTON,

1507 Fourteenth avenue, North.

Nashville, Tenn.

Dear Santa Claus:

My name is John Wendell. I am asking you again to remember me this Christmas. I would like to have a muffler, fireworks, suit of clothes, shoes and a stopper gun. Don't forget mamma and papa; bring mamma a davenport and papa some kind of fruit and bring me a tool-chest. Good
by. From your little boy,
JOHN WENDELL.

Bring my teacher, Mrs. Martha
Young, a set of furs.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 14, 1909.

Dear Santa Claus:

I have been good all the year and haven't had to shed a tear. I hope you won't forget to stop around and see what I want you to bring me. I want a pretty signet ring, a pretty dress (and please don't keep me in distress); also anything else you have to spare. From
GERTRUDE STRATTON,

1507 Fourteenth avenue, North.

P. S.—Don't forget the orphans and my little niece.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 11, 1909.

Dear Santa:

I am a little boy ten years old and going to school and not doing my best at the present with my lesson, but I am going to do better hereafter.
Dear Santa, I wanted you to bring me a good wagon and a good pair of shoes. Don't forget mother; she wants a basket of fruit and a pair of gloves. Yours,

me. Please bring me a Negro doll, a good reading book, pair of red gloves,
candy, nuts and fruits of all kinds.
I have a good teacher, Prof. T. J.
Cline. Please don't forget him and my mother. I also want a pair of vases, firecrackers, roman candles and all other things you think nice for a little girl like me. From NORTHELEAN WALKER.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 16, 1909.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little girl eight years old.
I am a good one and am writing you to tell you what to bring me. Bring me a doll and bed, stove, pair of gloves. I have a good teacher, Miss R. B. Meriweather. Please don't forget her and mother and please bring fruits of all kinds. From NETTIE R. WALKER.

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 18, 1909.

Dear Santa Claus:

I thought I would write you a letter
as this is my first one. I want you to bring me a set of furs as it is very cold; also a teddy, a large one with blue ribbon around its neck. Don't forget my chum, Ruth H. McAdoo.
She wants a set of furs just like mine, black ones please; when you come to my chum's house please come to the front door for she has got a very bad dog his name is Goodtime and he might bite you. Don't forget my mother and father; bring them something nice.
